

QUALIFICATIONS AND JOB DESCRIPTION

Founded in 1925, Festo Corporation is the leading worldwide supplier of automation technology and the performance leader in industrial training and education programs. For many years Festo has been providing impetus for factory automation and offers a wide product and service portfolio from individual components to complex customized solutions and system. As a family-owned company, we act from a holistic perspective. We take responsibility for our actions globally and locally, we want to contribute to the quality of life and conservation of resources where we operate with new technologies, knowledge, and education.

At Festo, we hire people who continuously live our five core Values:

- We are Ambitious
- We are Determined
- We are Visionary
- We Value Each Other
- We are Dependable

For further growth of our businesses, we are looking for Purchasing Project Trainee for our Manisa facility.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Classifying parts by analysing technical drawings in terms of production methods and material and complexity level,

Purchasing data mining, data verification and recover, documentation,

Support to/ Co-partnership with other team members at purchasing department,

Support purchasing category buyers in terms of engineering drawing change for various categories on several production methods,

Responsible for technical clarification, sampling documentation for changed series parts in alignment with the responsible buyer.

QUALIFICATIONS

University student at 3rd year of engineering departments especially Mechanical Engineering or related discipline,

Full-time participation in summer season,

Min. 2,5 day/ week participation at university season,

Very good command of English is a must,

Knowledge & ability to read and understand technical drawings,

Hardworking, positive minded, open for training, self-training and self-development,

Knowledge with SAP ERP MM module is an asset,

Strong ability to work independently,

IT affinity / MS Excel.